Panorama Towers Wins CARES Award

Panorama is awarded CAI 2008 Community Association Recognition of Excellence and Service Award

Cary, North Carolina, April 1, 2009 – Connexion Technologies is pleased to announce Panorama Towers of Las Vegas was recently awarded the CAI 2008 Community Association Recognition of Excellence and Service Award.

Community Association Recognition of Excellence in Service (CARES) is a Community Association Institute (CAI) program designed to award associations for accomplishments, events, and community involvement. This award is a huge honor for Panorama, as it demonstrates the association's dedication to communal living and efforts to improve the overall impact of the community within Las Vegas.

In addition to a myriad of other amenities, all three of Panorama's high-rise towers are equipped with a cutting-edge fiber-optic network by Connexion Technologies that supports services such as television, phone and Internet. Since fiber-optic wiring offers unlimited bandwidth, Panorama's network is always ready to support any new entertainment and communications service that residents demand. The developer and association board were also pleased with the fact that the service providers designated for the property consistently adhere to strict service level agreements ensuring resident satisfaction.

Located on Dean Martin Blvd., and rising 400 feet above the street, Panorama Towers offers a wide view of the Las Vegas Strip. The proximity to MGM City Center makes for a terrific property close to the action of the heart of the Las Vegas strip.
