

Connexion Technologies Forms New Partnership

Cary-based technology company to announces plans to serve KDM Development Corp.

Cary, North Carolina, April 12, 2010 – Today Connexion Technologies announced its partnership with KDM Development Corp., a full service property management company specializing in the management of manufactured home communities. Connexion will create a customized network solution for the delivery of services such as television, high-speed Internet, and telephone for these communities’ residents.

Based in New York, KDM Development Corp. began in 1995 by a few individuals interested in the acquisition of mobile home parks. KDM presently manages 47 manufactured home communities in 18 states, containing 7,500 rental sites.

“Our relationship with Connexion Technologies has allowed us to simplify telecommunications arrangements,” said Ken Burnham, founder of KDM. “We also look forward to offering enhanced services from Connexion Technologies’ service providers.”

“Our unique business model enables us to deliver a customized technology solution that best fits the needs of each property,” said Carter Teague, executive vice-president of Connexion Technologies. “By welcoming and managing a wide variety of leading service providers on our infrastructure, we can enable the delivery of a robust selection of service offerings at a significant savings.”
